

What should I do?

During a frozen night while a family is fighting, the youngest son is looking out of the window with a sad expression. Shivering, he is dreaming of a happier future without hearing the yells of his family. His elder sister approaches him.

“Don’t worry, everything will be fine”.

“I can’t take it anymore, I just want our family to be happy”.

“I am afraid you can’t do much about it... It’s already late you should go and study”, said Tina hugging Tommy.

Two weeks before, their father got home really skeptical and disappointed as he had lost his job. He is an accountant working in a small firm which had to close down. Being the breadwinner of the family and with a pregnant wife, he has now many problems to face. Unable to make ends meet, he is really desperate. He has been trying to find a new job, no matter how much he will be paid or what kind of job that will be, with no luck at all.

However, one day a friend tells him about an illegal job, which he is reluctant to accept. There is an ongoing battle in his mind. He keeps wondering:

“What should I do? On the one hand, this job calls me to bend my morals and on the other hand, my family needs me. What should I do?”

As days go by, with a lot of sleepless nights, he decides to discuss about it with his wife.

“Are you still thinking about it?” Amanda asks Jordan furiously. “This can’t be you!”

But he decides to accept the job. Now all that is left for him to do, is arrange everything with the mysterious man with the brown hat and the black glasses. Jordan calls him and they set their meeting point! Jordan must go to the abandoned train station at 12 o’ clock midnight ON HIS OWN!!!

Time is ticking... he is anxious and can't sleep at all. He is waiting for Amanda and the kids to fall asleep to be able to leave the house. It's 11 o'clock. He opens the door slowly but when he tries to close it the ugly creaking sound the door always makes, is heard...

Amanda wakes up. She runs to the window and sees him leave and get lost in the dark. She puts on her robe and follows him running.

He arrives first at the train station and she watches him hidden behind a half destroyed train compartment. Amanda is shivering from the cold and the rain that is now pouring down heavily. She watches Jordan shake hands with a tall dark figure... She can't believe her eyes. This can't be happening!

Amanda sees the dark figure giving Jordan a black bag and some money. Then she sees Jordan walking away. Amanda does not know what to do ... Should she follow him? She decides to follow him.

She sees him entering a bar. Amanda gets into the bar and walks to him.

"What have you got there ?" she asks him worried.

"I can't tell you" says Jordan

She takes the bag, looks inside and sees the gun.

"Do you want to be a murderer?" she tells him feeling so sad, angry and anxious!

Jordan realizes his mistake and apologizes to his wife.

They discuss about the situation and decide to return the money and the gun.

The next morning they are sitting at the kitchen table drinking coffee. They are desperate! The phone rings. Amanda answers the phone and starts crying with tears of happiness. The personnel manager of the company Jordan used to work at offered both of them a job in his new company.

Months later, with the newly born baby at home, they are happy sitting at the kitchen table. They are talking about the past, the present and their future. They realize that we should never give up. We should think positive and be optimistic. Life is beautiful!
